

GLOC Annual Awards Form

Name of Handler: _____

GLOC buys a plaque for members when they obtain their first title.

Is this your first title? _____YES _____NO

The plaque typically will have the member's name, and the name of their dog(s) and title(s) earned are attached to the plaque with dangles. The plaque reads: "GLOC Honors _____"

If you are getting a plaque how do you want your name and/or your kennel name (if desired) to read?

GLOC pays for one dangle per dog per year for any dog owned, or co-owned by a club member that completes a breed championship, or earns titles in obedience, tracking, agility, hunting, herding, flyball, dock diving, scent work, schutzhund, and/or Canine Good Citizen award.

To receive awards for dogs bred or trained by club members, but not owned or co-owned by club members, the club member must pay for the full cost of the award. Co-owned dogs cannot compete for club awards unless trained by a club member. Also if the club member wishes to receive a separate dangle for each title a dog earns, they must pay the cost of each additional dangle. Dangles cost $10.00 apiece and plaques are $60.00

Club Members are required to be in good standing by the end of the calendar year in order to have an award form processed; as well as have your membership renewed for the coming year.

PLEASE PRINT LEGIBLY. If I can't read it you are responsible for any errors, and the cost to remake the dangle or plaque.

Please print the full name (of the dog) and titles earned in the prior year as you wish for them to appear on the dangle. Please complete 1 form per dog. Please see page 2 for Obedience Title Section

Open B _____

Utility B _____

Do you have a dog competing for our TWIG award for repeat performance? If so, how many times in the last year have you entered this dog in hopes of getting a qualifying score towards an obedience title? (Don't be bashful, you deserve some reward for paying all those entry fees). You qualify for this award even if your dog has not earned the title yet.

Club Award Information

Each year in February we have an awards ceremony to reward those members who compete with their dogs and the Outstanding Service Award for a member who donates a lot of time to the club. Here are the awards :

OUTSTANDING SERVICE AWARD

The Outstanding Service Award was awarded the first time in 1994. This award recognizes a member's hard work and dedication to the club. In 2006 it was changed to the club members vote on this award. Voting takes place by secret ballot at the January meeting.

TWIG AWARD

The "repeat performance" award! Please submit the number of entries you have paid for in one class at competition obedience events. Members must nominate themselves

BLACK STAR

For the most improved dog in obedience. This award will be voted on by the Obedience Instructors that are currently teaching class.

GOLDEN BOLT

For the dog that succeeds in spite of itself! This award is for dogs who have earned a title in spite of itself. This award will be voted on the Board of Directors.

MOST IMPROVED AGILITY DOG

For the dog and handler that have improved the most throughout the year in either class or trials or both. Nominated by and voted on by the agility trainers that are currently teaching class

CLEARED HURDLE AWARD

This is an award for the agility dog and trainer that have overcome the most obstacles in the past year. This award will be voted on by the agility trainers currently teaching a class

COURSE DESIGNER

For the dog that liked to design their own course (comparable to the Golden Bolt). Nominated by and voted on by the agility instructors that are currently teaching a class.

HERSHEY AWARD

For the most improved Flyball Dog. Nominated and voted on by the flyball instructors/team.

TOP AGILITY DOG

For the agility competitor receiving the most titles in the past year, taking into consideration the highest title earned and who is the overall hands down top agility team.

TOP COMPETITION DOG, TOP UTILITY DOG, TOP OPEN DOG, TOP NOVICE DOG, TOP RALLY DOG

Based upon the scores that are submitted. The scores will be averaged and the dog with the highest average will be awarded "TOP" dog award.

GLOC VERSATILITY AWARD

The Lucy Rolinc Award was retired and a new "Versatility" award for a dog/handler team was started in 2007. This award is to honor the dog and handler team that received a title in any two disciplines that GLOC promotes: Obedience, Agility, Tracking, Rally Obedience, Breed, Flyball and Scent Work.

Titles/scores must be earned between January 1 and December 31 each year. Qualifying scores must be submitted to the awards chairperson by the deadline of the January meeting, unless the Chair changes the date as published.
